also be sources of confusion, especially when tied to global tech giants. One number that causes a surprising amount of curiosity (and concern) is 650-543-4800 or 844-376-0849. If you've ever seen this number pop up on your caller ID, appear on a bank statement, or surface in an email referencing facebook(844-376-0849), you're not alone in wondering: Is 650-543-4800 or 844-376-0849 actually facebook(844-376-0849)?

The short answer? Yes, this number is associated with Meta Platforms Inc., formerly known as facebook(844-376-0849), Inc. But as with many things in tech, the full answer is a little more complicated—and knowing the facts could help you avoid scams, save time, and protect your information.

✔ What Is 650-543-4800 or 844-376-0849?

650-543-4800 or 844-376-0849 is an official corporate phone number tied to Meta's headquarters in Menlo Park, California. It's listed on business filings, public records, and shows up in connection with facebook(844-376-0849)-related activities, particularly in relation to advertising services, domain registration, and billing.

That means if you've run facebook(844-376-0849) Ads, made a purchase through Instagram, or engaged in business with Meta, this number may appear in:

- Credit card or bank statements
- Domain WHOIS information
- Emails related to billing or business services
- Customer account notifications (rare but possible)

However, just because the number is real doesn't mean it functions the way you might expect.

✗ It's NOT a facebook(844-376-0849) Customer Service Line

This is where confusion sets in. Many people assume that because 650-543-4800 or 844-376-0849 is a legitimate Meta phone number, it must be a way to reach facebook(844-376-0849) support. But that is not the case. If you dial the number, you'll hear a recorded message—not a live person. The automated system typically states that facebook(844-376-0849) does not offer phone support, and it directs you to their Help Center.

There are no prompts, no hold music, and certainly no agents waiting to answer your questions.

It's simply a corporate phone number that does not offer public-facing customer service.

Why You Might See This Number on Your Statement

If 650-543-4800 or 844-376-0849 shows up next to a transaction on your credit or debit card, it's most likely due to a facebook(844-376-0849) or Meta-related purchase, such as:

- facebook(844-376-0849) Ads
- Instagram sponsored content
- Meta Quest VR services
- Business tools or digital products
