	strategies should, in writing, make these special needs known to the instructor during the first week of the course.
Submission of Work:	Scheduled assignments MUST be completed and successfully submitted through the Blackboard Assignment Tool (drop box) by due date and time. Assignments automatically become unavailable after the due date/time expires. All assignments MUST be written in MS Word and saved as a .DOC file and submitted as an attached file document. Failure to submit your term paper as an attachment will be considered NON COMPLETION and your score will be an automatic ZERO! TERM PAPER – Due December 9, 2019 Listed below are suggested topics for your term paper. The topic you choose for the term paper must be one of those listed below unless you had a prior approval from me to research a particular issue. It helps to choose a topic that touches you personally – that is one that you can relate with for one reason or the other. You may find it more motivating also to choose a topic that addresses a problem that is relevant to your political/social interests, community or gender interests or one that speaks to the needs of the agency where you work. The term paper should be at least 10 pages long, and should include the following sections: Introduction, Literature Review, Methodology, Discussion and Conclusion. Your paper must be typewritten, using 1.5 line spacing, and must be properly referenced using the APA referencing style. Ensure that your work conforms to proper use of grammar, spelling and sentence structure. Your paper should read like a very well written journal article. I encourage you to discuss the research project with each other. You must however, submit a work that is truly yours. In other words, while two or more people can write on the same topic, the paper you submit must reflect individual enterprise, that is, you are not allowed to collaborate on the actual writing of the assignment. The following are suggested outlines for your term paper: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Introduction (Problem statement) b. Literature Review (Review of extant literature on the subject). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> c. Research Design (Methods applied to obtain materials for the study) d. Research Findings e. Discussion of Research Findings f. Implications of Study/Research Findings for policy/solving of real life problem. The following are good sources for data for your term paper: (The University Library will be your best place to start your inquiry. Do not also forget that I remain your other source for guidance, and I am available to assist you when you call on me. To complete a good research paper, you must give yourself time. Start now to put your materials and thoughts together. It is not possible to write a good research paper within 24 hours). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Refereed Academic/ Professional Journals b. Books published by Academic Presses c. Magazines or Newspapers that are highly regarded d. The Mainstream Popular Press e. Internet sources (etc). TERM PAPER – SUGGESTED TOPICS <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is globalization and its association with crime 2. How Beneficial is Crime to Society? 3. Is Criminal Behavior Determined Biologically? 4. Is Racial Profiling an Acceptable Law Enforcement Strategy? 5. Should Marijuana Be Legalized? 6. Do Minorities receive tougher sentencing? 7. Do three strikes sentencing laws and other “get tough” approaches really work? 8. Compare and contrast terrorists, insurgents, guerillas, and revolutionaries 9. Discuss the arguments for and against legalizing drugs 10. Discuss the evolution of cybercrime. EVALUATION RUBRIC FOR COURSE TERM

PAPER

The following are the criteria I will base my evaluation of your Term Paper. The relevance of the content to the subject matter, and how you organize, present ideas, apply the relevant theoretical framework, creatively interject your opinions and your English usage. In addition to evaluating the different elements of the paper, a holistic view on how these features are brought together to form a total work is important.

A. For a paper to score an A it must meet the following criteria. The paper comprehensively addresses the subject matter. The thesis, arguments and all supporting evidence show a clear understanding of the issues. The paper clearly, effectively and insightfully develops and conveys a point of view. Its organization and focus is also very clear, coherent, and ideas smoothly progress from one to the other, and also demonstrating excellent critical thinking and supported with appropriate examples. There are no major errors in vocabulary, sentence structure, spelling, citation, punctuation and paragraphing. It must meet the APA format and present a complete Bibliography in a separate page.

B. A paper in the B grade range must meet the following criteria:

Show significant mastery of the subject matter; however, showing occasional errors in thought and quality; the paper is clearly and effectively developed and presented, demonstrating reasonable critical thinking, coherence in thought, and progression of ideas; occasional mistakes which do not impede the meaning and clarity of the statement in grammar, word selection, sentence structure, spelling, paragraphing. Appropriate evidences are provided to support paper thesis, arguments and opinions. The References must be complete and the APA writing format followed.

C. A paper in the C or lower range has the following weaknesses:

The paper shows some understanding of the subject matter however with significant errors that compromises the quality of the paper. The theories selected for analysis do not fit or are misapplied. One or more of the important elements of the paper is missing. The paper in significant respects is unfocused and or disjointed and incoherent. There are several grammatical, sentence structure and spelling mistakes. The citations and references are either lacking and or not properly done.

Grading Matrix

Instrument	Value (points or percentage)
Mid-term Exam.	100 points
Final Exam.	100 points
Term Paper	200 points

Teaching/Learning Strategies	The primary instructional model for this course is collaborative learning. Specifically, the instructor will set course content, course objectives, and methods of classroom assessment. The course will incorporate the following instructional strategies: class discussion, online activities, assigned readings, and/or individual projects. Students are encouraged to actively participate in activities, ask questions, and contribute comments for discussion. Students are also encouraged to offer input regarding instructional strategies and assignments. Most importantly, students are expected to be active learners and to ask for clarification when they have questions. In order to be successful in the class, it is important that students, read the assigned material, and submit assignments and be prepared to discuss what they have read. The goal of this approach is to develop a safe learning environment that addresses a variety of learning styles, promotes critical thinking, and fosters creativity.
