Course Requirements	Basic computer skills, working within Windows system environment, navigating the Internet, and familiarity with

Required Textbook:	Peak, Kenneth J., and Andrew L. Giacomazzi (2019). Justice Administration: Police, Courts, and Corrections Management. Ninth Edition. NY, NY: Pearson Education, Inc.
Recommended Books:	Allen, Jennifer M., and Rajeev Sawhney (2015). Administration and Management in Criminal Justice: A Service Quality Approach. Second Edition. Thousand Oaks, CA: SAGE Publications, Inc. Kania, Richard R.E., (2008). Managing Criminal Justice Organizations: An Introduction to Theory & Practice. First Edition. Newark, NJ: LexisNexis. Stohr, Mary K., and Peter A. Collins. (2009). Criminal Justice Management: Theory and Practice in Justice-Centered Organizations, New York, NY: Oxford University Press.
Class attendance policy:	Every student is required to participate in using Canvas Communication Tools, taking online exams, and other aspects of Canvas. You are expected to log in regularly (daily, perhaps several times per day) to submit assignments, check grades, personal messages, and view course materials. Student(s) who fail to participate in the online course during a course week will be deemed absent for that week. The absence will be annotated as absent unexcused (AU), unless the instructor has been informed beforehand and deemed the absence as absent excused (AE). The instructor shall report all absences to the main campus as required. A student who has not participated for 7 consecutive days regardless of the absences, will be deemed AU or AE, and shall be recommended for administrative withdrawal by the main campus. In a traditional On-Line course, just because a student contacts the instructor and is excused from a scheduled class meeting does not mean the student is given credit for participation or attendance. The student is still annotated as AU or AE. The On-Line shall be no different in this respect. It is the instructor's sole discretion as to what he/she shall consider AU or AE.
Submission of Work:	Scheduled assignments MUST be completed and successfully submitted through the Canvas Assignment Tool (drop box) by due date and time. Assignments automatically become unavailable after the due date and time expire. All assignments MUST be keyed using MS Word or saved as a .DOC file and no multiple submissions will be allowed.

	Research Paper Due Date: April 16, 2020 For your research paper, you MUST select one United States (federal), or state, or local government criminal justice agency and discuss the structure, functions, and administration of that agency. The paper must also include an analysis and assessment of the interaction between the agency and its external and internal environments. The format for the research paper includes a title page, outline, text, and references. You are required to utilize a minimum of five sources to write the paper. You can use your textbook as one of your sources. The paper must be double-spaced and 15-20 pages in length. The paper is to follow the APA style. For information on APA style, consult: http://www.wisc.edu/writing/handbook/DocAPAReference.html. Please note that spelling, punctuation, sentence structure, grammar, and the general content will factor prominently in determining the grade of the paper. Also, note that plagiarism (making intellectual use of material that originated with another author without citing the source) is a serious intellectual offense and will be addressed accordingly, that is, to the highest punitive academic degree, including earning a failing grade for the course.
Make-up policy:	Make-up will be based on unforeseen circumstances or emergency situations (e.g., serious illness, accidents, jury duty, or death in the immediate family) that make it impossible for the student to complete the course requirements on schedule. In that case, the student must request the make-up of a course grading item(s) and obtain the approval of the instructor before the make-up. Also, students attending officially authorized functions must discuss make-up with the instructor and obtain the instructor's approval before the make-up. Otherwise there is NO opportunity for make-up or "I" grade in this course.
Course Drop:	Students not completing the course for any reason are required to submit official drop notices to the Registrar's Office prior to the deadline date. This is your responsibility . Failure to comply with the procedure WILL result in your receiving a letter grade of "UF".
Cheating and plagiarism policy:	Cheating in any fashion will not be tolerated, including but not limited to plagiarizing another's words, work or ideas on individual class assignments.

	To address the situation of plagiarism, the University has implemented Turnitin to fight plagiarism and improve reading, writing, and research skills. Turnitin is a comprehensive plagiarism prevention system that lets faculty quickly and effectively check all students' work. Results are based on exhaustive searches of billions of pages from both current and archived instances on the Internet. Plagiarism will result in at least a failing grade for the assignment(s) and/or course.
Online Communication Observation of "Netiquette":	Students MUST use Canvas mail for contact with the instructor and other members of the class. All your Online communications should be composed with fairness, honesty and tact. What you put into an Online course reflects on your level of professionalism.
Technical Problems:	If you experience technical/computer difficulties (need help downloading browsers or plug-in, logging into your course, using your course web site tools, or experience errors or problems while in your online course), contact: George Huntley at 662. 254.3624 or Mack Pendleton at 662.254.3114 as well as your instructor.

Teaching/Learning Strategies	The instructor will set the course contents, course objectives, and methods of on-line assessment. The course will incorporate the following instructional strategies: online activities, assigned readings/assignments. Students are encouraged to actively participate in activities, ask questions, and make comments when and where necessary. Most importantly, students are expected to be active learners, and to ask for clarification when they have questions. In order to be successful in this online class, it is important that students read the assigned material and submit assignments according to schedule. The goal of this approach is to develop a safe learning environment that addresses a variety of learning
