Appropriate Use Policy Version 1.0

This policy governs the use of computers, computer-based networks, and all related equipment administered by Mississippi Valley State University. Under the federal statutes and the sections of the Mississippi code that regulate the use of these resources, MVSU is required to ensure that this equipment is used properly and for the purpose for which state funds were expended. The intent of this policy is to allow maximum freedom of use consistent with state and federal law, MVSU policy and a productive work environment.

General Principle
 Appropriate use reflects academic honesty and ethical behavior, and demonstrates consideration in the consumption of shared resources. It shows respect for intellectual property, ownership of data, system security mechanisms, and the rights of others to privacy and to freedom from intimidation, harassment, and unwarranted annoyance.

Authorized Use
 Individuals may use MVSU computing facilities only with the express authority of MVSU. Using an account that belongs to another individual or giving an individual other than the owner access to an MVSU account is prohibited. MVSU management authorizes system accounts and the use of lab facilities. In certain cases, such as with remote visualization facilities, MVSU management may designate an appropriate agent to authorize accounts. Authorized users of MVSU computing facilities include:

- The faculty, staff, and students of the state supported universities governed by the Mississippi Board of Trustees of Institutions of Higher Learning (IHL).
- Pre-approved individuals associated with other state supported educational institutions (e.g., high school teachers and students working on special projects).
- Other outside, pre-approved clients.

Appropriate use of MVSU computing facilities includes:

- The support of instructional activities (e.g., to complete class projects or conduct activities relevant to class work).
- The support of institutionally sponsored research by authorized users.
- The facilitation of official work of state and university offices, departments, agencies, and sanctioned campus organizations.
- MVSU computing facilities are not to be used for commercial purposes of financial gain except in pre-approved circumstances. MVSU computing facilities are not to be used for partisan political purposes.
- MVSU computing facilities serve diverse purposes and diverse constituencies, and rules for use may vary somewhat across systems and labs. Activities having valid educational benefits, but which are however, they may be limited or banned on certain systems at the discretion of MVSU management, according to system load and system function. For example, due to the limited number of stations, game playing and computer chatting in MVSU labs is strictly prohibited unless the activity is required as part of a university course. System and lab dependent policies are communicated to users through on-line messages, news items, and lab postings. Compliance with the MVSU Appropriate Use Policy requires compliance with all system and lab dependent policies.
- Misuse or abuse of MVSU computing facilities is a violation of the MVSU Appropriate Use Policy; violators are subject to the suspension or revoking of computing privileges, disciplinary action, and criminal prosecution in case of violations of state or federal law.

Computer Software Usage

MVSU computing facilities utilize many software applications, with a wide range of license and copyright provisions. Users are responsible for availing themselves of appropriate information and complying with the license and copyright provisions of the software that they use.

Mississippi Valley State University prohibits the unauthorized copying or electronic transmission of copyrighted computer software, computer data, and software manuals at Mississippi Valley State University unless appropriate written consent is obtained from the software vendor or licensor.

Such unauthorized duplication is grounds for disciplinary action by the University and is subject to criminal prosecution under Mississippi Computer Statutes, as well as under the Federal Computer Fraud and Abuse Act of 1986.

Users Responsibilities

Respect the integrity of MVSU computing environments and computing environments reachable by MVSU network connections.

- No individual shall, without authorization, access, use, destroy, alter, dismantle or disfigure MVSU technologies, properties or facilities. If an individual encounters or observes a vulnerability in system or network security, then that individual must report the vulnerability to MVSU management. Individuals must refrain from exploiting any vulnerabilities in security.
- No individual shall use MVSU computing facilities to gain illegal access or entry into other computers. MVSU users must follow any policies governing the use of any remote hosts accessed.
- Respect the privacy of other individuals.
- Files belonging to individuals are to be considered private property unless explicit authorization is given by the owner of the files. That a user can read a file does not mean that a user may read a file. The ability to alter a file does not give user the right to alter a file.
- Respect the finite capacity of systems.
- No individual shall monopolize or hoard resources, including lab stations (PC, Workstations, Terminals), printing facilities, dial-in connections, limited-use software licenses, and system resources such as CPU, disk, memory, and Clay Solid state Storage Devices (SSD).
- Use computing facilities in a manner that promotes a productive and professional working environment - locally, nationally, and internationally.
- Computer communications systems and networks promote the free exchange of ideas and information, thus enhancing teaching and research.
- Individuals should not use electronic communications systems such as E-mail to harass others or to interfere with their work. Other examples of misuse include: sending messages, mail or communications of any kind to persons who have not requested it or who cannot be reasonably expected to welcome such communications; printing or displaying materials that are unsuitable for public display or that could create an atmosphere of discomfort or harassment for others.
- MVSU computing facilities are not to be used in a wasteful or frivolous manner (e.g., tying up system or network resources with computer based game playing, sending trivial or excessive messages, printing excess copies of documents, files, data, or programs, running grossly inefficient programs when efficient alternatives are available, etc.)

- 0. Protect Your Account. Even the best computer systems cannot protect the individual who fails to conceal his or her password. To prevent abuse of your account, physically protect your session, never record a password where it can be found, and never reveal your password. Follow MVSU guidelines for password selection and change your password often. Inform MVSU when you leave your institution so that your account may be properly closed. Failure to act responsibly in the use of MVSU computing facilities is a violation of the MVSU Appropriate Use Policy; violators are subject to the suspension or revoking of computing privileges, disciplinary action, and criminal prosecution in cases of violations of state or federal law.

MVSU Rights and Responsibilities

Acknowledgment of this policy statement authorizes appropriate MVSU system or network personnel, under the direction of MVSU management, to examine user files and activities, if necessary. No guarantee of complete privacy is made. MVSU management reserves the right to stop any process, restrict any individual's use, inspect, copy, remove or otherwise alter any data, file, or system resource that may undermine or adversely affect the overall performance or integrity of the computing facilities. MVSU system and network administrators have taken reasonable precautions to ensure that potentially offensive materials does not reside on local facilities; however, MVSU cannot be held responsible for materials residing on remote sites. Individuals are cautioned to exercise judgment in accessing such materials.

CONSEQUENCES

- Violation of MVSU Appropriate Use Policy may result in the following penalties:
 - Suspension for varying amounts of time or the permanent revoking of computing privileges
 - MVSU management reserves the right to revoke the computing privileges of individuals who disciplinary action is determined.
 - Report of the violation to the appropriate Disciplinary Advisory Committee for the user's institution.
 - Referral to the appropriate law enforcement agency in cases of violations of state or federal law.

DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE ACKNOWLEDGMENT
MISSISSIPPI VALLEY STATE UNIVERSITY

Drug abuse and use in the workplace are subjects of immediate concern in our society. These problems are extremely complex and there are no easy solutions. From a safety perspective, the users of drugs may impair the well-being of all employees, the public at large, and result in damage to University property. Public Law 100-690, the Anti-Drug Abuse Act, was enacted by the federal government in 1988. Title V, Subtitle D, the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988, is part of the overall act, which requires State agencies who receive federal grants to certify that they will maintain a drug-free workplace and publish and administer specific drug-free workplace policies and drug awareness programs. Therefore, it is the position of the Mississippi Valley State University that the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession or use of a controlled substance in the workplace is prohibited. Any employee violating these prohibitions will be subject to discipline up to and including termination.

1. Mississippi Valley State University does not differentiate between drug users and drug pushers or sellers. Any employee who unlawfully gives or in any way transfers a controlled substance to another person or sells or manufactures or unlawfully uses a controlled substance while on the job, in the workplace, or at a site which the university's work is performed will be subject to discipline up to and including termination.
2. The term "controlled substance" means any drug listed in 21 U.S.C. 812 and other federal regulations. Generally, these are drugs which have a high potential for abuse. Such drugs include, but are not limited to, heroin, marijuana, cocaine, PP, and 'crack'. They also include 'legal drugs' which are not prescribed by a licensed physician.
3. Each employee is required to inform the university appointing authority within five (5) days after he or she is convicted for violation of any federal or state criminal drug statute where such violation occurred in the workplace. A conviction means a finding of guilt, including a plea of guilty or of nolo contendere, or the imposition of a sentence by a judge or jury in any federal or state court.
4. The agency appointing authority must notify the U.S. government agency with which the grant was made within ten (10) days after receiving notice from the employee or otherwise receives actual notice of such a conviction.
5. If an employee is convicted of violating any criminal drug statute while in the workplace, he or she will be subject to discipline up to and including termination. Alternatively, the employee may be required to successfully complete an inpatient or outpatient drug abuse program sponsored by an approved private or governmental institution.
6. As a condition of further employment on any federal government grant, all employees are required to abide by these requirements.

I, _____, an employee of Mississippi Valley State University, hereby certify that I understand the University's requirements regarding the maintenance of a drug-free workplace. I realize that the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession or use of a controlled substance is prohibited at my workplace. I understand that violating those prohibitions can subject me to discipline up to and including termination. I realize that as a condition of employment, I must abide by the requirements of the University in this regard and I will notify my supervisor of any criminal drug conviction for a violation occurring in the workplace no later than five (5) days after such conviction. I further realize that federal law may mandate that Mississippi Valley State University communicate this conviction to an appropriate federal agency, and I hereby waive any and all claims that may arise for conveying this information to the federal agency.

 ▶ Give Form W-4 to your employer.
 ▶ Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		▶ Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly (or Qualifying widow(er)) <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, when to use the online estimator, and privacy.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4); or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld ▶

TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2020 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependents	If your income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):
	Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 ▶ $ _____
	Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 ▶ $ _____
	Add the amounts above and enter the total here	3	$ _____
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$ _____
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$ _____

General Instructions

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2020 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2019 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2020. You had no federal income tax liability in 2019 if (1) your total tax on line 16 on your 2019 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 18a, 18b, and 18c), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2020 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1a, 1b, and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2021.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as the additional Medicare tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. Step 3 of Form W-4 provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit and Credit for Other Dependents. You can also include other tax credits in this step, such as education tax credits and the foreign tax credit. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2020 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a
b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b
c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c
3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.
4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2020 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 10% of your income
2 Enter: { $24,800 if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er); $18,650 if you're head of household; $12,400 if you're single or married filing separately }
3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"
4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Schedule 1 (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). See Pub. 505 for more information
5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4

 - (a) Single Individuals enter $6,000 on Line 1.
 - (b) Married individuals are allowed a joint exemption of $12,000.
If the spouse is not employed, enter $12,000 on Line 2(a). If the spouse is employed, the exemption of $12,000 may be divided between taxpayer and spouse in any manner they choose - in multiples of $500. For example, the taxpayer may claim $6,500 and the spouse claims $5,500; or the taxpayer may claim $8,000 and the spouse claims $4,000. The total claimed by the taxpayer and spouse may not exceed $12,000. Enter amount claimed by you on Line 2(b).
 - (c) Head of Family
A head of family is a single individual who maintains a home which is the principal place of abode for himself and at least one other dependent. Single individuals qualifying as a head of family enter $9,500 on Line 3. If the taxpayer has more than one dependent, additional exemptions are applicable. See item (d).
 - (d) An additional exemption of $1,500 may generally be claimed for each dependent of the taxpayer. A dependent is any relative who receives chief support from the taxpayer and who qualifies as a dependent for Federal income tax purposes. Head of family individuals may claim an additional exemption for each dependent excluding the one which is required for head of family status. For example, a head of family taxpayer has 2 dependent children and his dependent mother living with him. The taxpayer may claim 2 additional exemptions. Married or single individuals may claim an additional exemption for each dependent, but should not include themselves or their spouse. Married taxpayers may divide the number of their dependents between them in any manner they choose; for example, a married couple has 3 children who qualify as dependents. The taxpayer may claim 2 dependents and the spouse 1; or the taxpayer may claim 3 dependents and the spouse none. Enter the amount of dependent exemption on Line 4.
 - (e) An additional exemption of $1,500 may be claimed by either taxpayer or spouse or both if either or both have reached the age of 65 before the close of the taxable year. No additional exemption is authorized for dependents by reason of age. Check applicable blocks on Line 5.
 - (f) An additional exemption of $1,500 may be claimed by either taxpayer or spouse or both if either or both are blind. No additional exemption is authorized for dependents by reason of blindness. Check applicable blocks on Line 5. Multiply number of blocks checked on Line 5 by $1,500 and enter amount of exemption claimed.
