

DOMINIQUE CHEEKS

Dominique Cheeks was born in Jacksonville, NC and raised in Memphis TN. As a child, she had trouble deciding what she aspired to be as an adult. One Sunday after church she had an encounter with a church member who told her "I can see you being on the news someday." That conversation is what sparked Dominique's interest in becoming a journalist and is what drove her to obtain her undergraduate degree from Mississippi Valley State University in Mass Communication. Dominique has always had a go-getter spirit, and desires to always be the best that she can be.
