

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY STATE UNIVERSITY®

Dear Student,

Your suspension has occurred as a result of your being on academic probation for two consecutive semesters and not having attained the required minimum cumulative grade point average. Nonetheless, your records indicate that you have made academic progress during this past semester. Correspondingly, to encourage your continued progress, your appeal may be submitted by completing and returning the enclosed document.

Your academic appeals document should be forwarded to the following address:

Academic Appeals Committee
Office of Academic Affairs
MVSU 7297
14000 Hwy 82 West
Itta Bena, MS 38941-1400

The following steps outline the appeals process:

- The attached document requesting an appeal is submitted no later than January 2, 2019.
- The appeals document is received by the Academic Appeals Committee.
- A decision will be rendered to you by telephone and/or written notification informing you of the committee's decision.

If your appeal is successful, you will receive instructions outlining your participation in student development activities to assist you in being successful in your classes. If you elect not to appeal your suspension, you will be eligible to apply for readmission to the University Spring 2021. Your request for readmission must be received at least seven days prior to the beginning of the semester. Please contact the Office of Academic Affairs at 662.254.3800, if assistance is needed. Additionally, you may review your student information via the MyValley Campus Portal by navigating to <https://mycampus.mvsu.edu>. To gain access, login using your MVSU Domain username and password. Your Domain username and password are the credentials that you normally use to logon to campus computers. You may also contact Computer Services at 662-254-3744 for login assistance.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Evans, Ph.D.
Interim Vice President for Academic Affairs

Committee Recommendation

- Recommended for reinstatement
- Not recommended for reinstatement

Rationale:

- Student has made satisfactory progress

- Student has not made satisfactory progress

Note: According to the University Catalog, a student who is academically suspended from the University at the end of the spring semester may earn re-admission on probation by attending the University summer session immediately following the dismissal and earning the minimum grade point average, based on his/her classification or earned credit hours. Satisfactory academic progress for students attending the summer session shall be monitored at the end of the summer session.
